Explanatory Note: In connection with the solicitation of proxies with respect to the proposals set forth in the definitive proxy statement of GW Pharmaceuticals plc (“GW”) dated March 15, 2021, the following email was prepared for use by GW’s proxy solicitor, D.F. King.

Dear GW Pharmaceuticals plc Shareholder,

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT

We are contacting you regarding the proposed acquisition of GW Pharmaceuticals plc (“GW”) by a wholly-owned subsidiary of Jazz Pharmaceuticals Public Limited Company (“Jazz”) (the “Proposed Transaction”), to be implemented by way of a court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement (the “Scheme of Arrangement”). Further details of the Proposed Transaction are set out in the Proxy Statement dated March 15, 2021, which has been separately sent to you and which is also published on the US Securities and Exchange Commission website at www.sec.gov and available for download at www.gwpharm.com/acquisition-by-jazz-pharmaceuticals.

GW has appointed D.F. King to provide assistance with its shareholder communications regarding the Proposed Transaction. Attached is the Letter of Authorisation confirming our appointment.

As mentioned in the Proxy Statement, the GW shareholder meetings to approve the Proposed Transaction will be held on April 23, 2021 and will consist of (1) a Court Meeting to consider and vote on the Scheme of Arrangement, which is convened with the permission of the High Court of England and Wales, and (2) a General Meeting of the GW shareholders to consider and vote on certain additional matters needed to implement the Proposed Transaction. As set out in the Proxy Statement, the GW board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote in favor of the resolutions to be proposed at the Court Meeting and General Meeting.

If you are a direct holder of GW ordinary shares, Link Group (as GW’s registrar) must receive your forms of proxy for the Court Meeting and the General Meeting by 2:00 p.m. and 2:15 p.m. (London time), respectively, on April 21, 2021.

If you are a holder of GW American Depositary Shares (“ADSs”), Citibank, N.A., as depositary, must receive your voting instructions for the Court Meeting and the General Meeting by 10:00 a.m. (New York time) on April 19, 2021.

Further details of how to return proxy votes or submit voting instructions are set out in the Proxy Statement.

D.F. King will be following up to answer any questions you may have around the Proposed Transaction. In the meantime, it would be greatly appreciated if you could let us know if you have any questions around the shareholder meetings or voting process, and whether you have any points you would like to raise with GW.

For your information, the ADS and ordinary share details are as follows:

Issuer	ISIN	Ticker
GW Pharmaceuticals plc	US36197T1034 (ADSs) GB0030544687 (Ords)	GWPH (ADSs) GWPRF (Ords)

In case you are not the right person to contact regarding the Proposed Transaction, it would be highly appreciated if you could forward this email to the responsible person or department.

Thank you in advance for your consideration,

Forward-Looking Statements

This communication contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 regarding GW and Jazz including, but not limited to, statements related to the proposed acquisition of GW and the anticipated timing for the completion thereof; statements regarding the expectations and beliefs of the board of directors of GW, GW management, the board of directors of Jazz or Jazz management and other statements that are not historical facts. You can generally identify forward-looking statements by the use of forward-looking terminology such as “anticipate,” “believe,” “continue,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “explore,” “evaluate,” “intend,” “may,” “might,” “plan,” “potential,” “predict,” “project,” “seek,” “should,” or “will,” or the negative thereof or other variations thereon or comparable terminology. These forward-looking statements are based on each of the companies’ current plans, objectives, estimates, expectations and intentions and inherently involve significant risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond GW’s or Jazz’s control. Actual results and the timing of events could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements as a result of these risks and uncertainties, which include, without limitation, risks and uncertainties associated with GW’s and Jazz’s ability to complete the acquisition on the proposed terms or on the anticipated timeline, or at all, including: risks and uncertainties related to securing the necessary regulatory and shareholder approvals, the sanction of the High Court of Justice of England and Wales and satisfaction of other closing conditions to consummate the acquisition; the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the definitive transaction agreement relating to the acquisition; risks related to diverting the attention of GW and Jazz management from ongoing business operations; failure to realize the expected benefits of the acquisition; significant transaction costs and/or unknown or inestimable liabilities; the risk of shareholder litigation in connection with the acquisition, including resulting expense or delay; the risk that GW’s business will not be integrated successfully or that such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; Jazz’s ability to obtain the expected financing to consummate the acquisition; risks related to future opportunities and plans for the combined company, including the uncertainty of expected future regulatory filings, financial performance and results of the combined company following completion of the acquisition; GW’s or the combined company’s dependence on the successful commercialization of Epidiolex or Epidyolex (the trade name for Epidiolex in Europe) and the uncertain market potential of Epidiolex/Epidyolex; pharmaceutical product development and the uncertainty of clinical success; the regulatory approval process, including the risks that GW or Jazz may be unable to submit anticipated regulatory filings on the timeframe anticipated, or at all, or that GW or the combined company may be unable to obtain regulatory approvals of any product candidates, including nabiximols and Epidiolex/Epidyolex for additional indications, in a timely manner or at all; disruption from the acquisition, making it more difficult to conduct business as usual or maintain relationships with customers, employees, distributors, suppliers or other third parties; effects relating to the announcement of the acquisition or any further announcements or the consummation of the acquisition on the market price of Jazz ordinary shares, GW American depositary shares or GW ordinary shares; the possibility that, if Jazz does not achieve the perceived benefits of the acquisition as rapidly or to the extent anticipated by financial analysts or investors, the market price of Jazz ordinary shares could decline; regulatory initiatives and changes in tax laws; market volatility; and other risks and uncertainties affecting GW and Jazz, including those described from time to time under the caption “Risk Factors” and elsewhere in GW’s and Jazz’s U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) filings and reports, including GW’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020, Jazz’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020, GW’s definitive proxy statement filed with the SEC on March 15, 2021 and future filings and reports by either company. In addition, while GW and Jazz expect the COVID-19 pandemic to continue to adversely affect their respective business operations and financial results, the extent of the impact on the combined company’s ability to generate sales of and revenues from its approved products, execute on new product launches, its clinical development and regulatory efforts, its corporate development objectives and the value of and market for its ordinary shares, will depend on future developments that are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted with confidence at this time. Moreover, other risks and uncertainties of which GW or Jazz are not currently aware may also affect each of the companies’ forward-looking statements and may cause actual results and the timing of events to differ materially from those anticipated. Readers of this communication are cautioned that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. The forward-looking statements made in this communication are made only as of the date hereof or as of the dates indicated in the forward-looking statements and reflect the views stated therein with respect to future events as at such dates, even if they are subsequently made available by GW or Jazz on their respective websites or otherwise. Except as otherwise required by law, neither GW nor Jazz undertakes any obligation, and each expressly disclaims any obligation, to update or supplement any forward-looking statements to reflect actual results, new information, future events, changes in its expectations or other circumstances that exist after the date as of which the forward-looking statements were made.
